

The Attijariwafa Bank Group Honored by the Prestigious English Magazine Euromoney at the «Awards for Excellence» Ceremony

Casablanca, July 29, 2021 - During the «Euromoney Awards for Excellence 2021» ceremony held online on July 14, the Attijariwafa bank group was awarded the prize of the «Best bank in Morocco in 2021» by the prestigious English magazine Euromoney, the international reference publication of the world's financial markets, for the 11th year.

According to the magazine, under the leadership of its Chairman and CEO, Mr. Mohamed El Kettani, Attijariwafa bank has distributed in Morocco more than MAD 40 billion in additional loans since the beginning of the health crisis, including support to nearly 70,000 companies, mainly SMEs, notably through flagship mechanisms such as «Oxygen» and «Recovery» that have benefited Moroccan companies. In addition, there is also the «Intelaka» program in favor of VSEs and entrepreneurs. The share of Attijariwafa bank in the three schemes is over 30%.

Euromoney, said that the year 2021 has also been marked by the launch of two new digital portals, Attijari CIB and Attijari Enterprises, which aim to make the user experience more fluid and add features in cash management, trade, currency, documentation and custody.

About Euromoney

For nearly 50 years, Euromoney has been the leading publication covering the growth of international finance. Over the past 12 months, its coverage has included interviews with nearly 100 bank CEOs, finance ministers and central bank governors from around the world.

The Euromoney Awards for Excellence are the benchmark awards for banks and bankers. They were established in 1992 and were the first of their kind in the global banking industry. This year, Euromoney received nearly 1,500 submissions from banks in an awards program covering 20 global awards, more than 50 regional awards and the top banking awards in nearly 100 countries. Its Awards of Excellence have evolved to match the markets they cover.

Press Contact - Attijariwafa bank group

Mrs Ouafaa GHAOUAT

Media Relations Manager

Phone : 00212 647 47 32 90

Email : o.ghaouat@attijariwafa.com