

Attijari International Bank receives the “STP AWARD” awarded by COMMERZBANK

Casablanca, 18 March, 2022 - Attijari International Bank (AIB), the offshore bank of the Attijariwafa bank group, has just won the «STP AWARD» for the 5th consecutive year, along with the «Excellent Quality» distinction, awarded by the German banking group Commerzbank, a hallmark of the quality of its international operations.

Established by Commerzbank, one of the largest financial and banking institutions operating in more than 50 countries worldwide, the “STP AWARD” rewards the leading banks offering the best quality of service in the processing of international financial and commercial transactions, in accordance with international standards in terms of processing and compliance rules.

This recognition was awarded to AIB as a commercial bank with a strong reputation as a leading bank in the offshore financial center.

Created in 1994, Attijari International bank assists foreign investors established in the Kingdom’s various industrial acceleration zones. Over the years, it has become the banking reference for multinationals established in these zones.

For AIB, the “STP AWARD” is a recognition of its teams’ efforts and those of the Attijariwafa bank group entities that support its activities. It also reflects the challenge to continuously improve the quality of its services in compliance with the rules in force and regulations set by the banking correspondents and various international organizations (FATF and OECD).

Commerzbank is the second largest bank in Germany. It also contributes to the financing of more than 30% of international trade transactions.

Through this latest recognition, the Attijariwafa bank group confirms its leadership in terms of quality of service to its customers and its international partners.
