

New distinction for the Attijariwafa bank group in New York

Casablanca, 13 April 2022 – During the «World Best Banks Awards» ceremony organized by the prestigious American magazine Global Finance, Attijariwafa bank received the award of the «Best Bank in Morocco for the year 2022» for the 9th year.

This award follows the award won by the bank at the beginning of the year for «Best Investment Bank».

This 29th edition was held in New York on the sidelines of the IMF and World Bank annual meetings.

According to Global Finance, the winners of this year's awards are banks that have carefully met the needs of their clients in challenging markets and delivered strong results while laying the foundation for future success.

The selections were made by the editors of Global Finance after extensive consultations with corporate finance executives, bankers and banking consultants, and analysts from around the world.

Objective criteria considered include asset growth, profitability, geographical scope, strategic relationships, new business development and product innovation. Subjective criteria include the opinions of equity analysts, credit rating analysts, bank consultants, and others involved in the industry.

Mr. Joseph D. Giarraputo, Editorial Director of Global Finance stated, «In the wake of the enormous challenges brought about by the pandemic and the Ukraine-Russia conflict, these changes require increased attention to global business relationships. Our awards support decision makers in selecting the best financial partners worldwide».

With this new distinction, Attijariwafa bank has confirmed its position as a national leader in its field of business.
